A long representing the sanitary condition of the freedmen to be in the best reasily according to the properties.

The Times' special says the following is full text of amendments to the Constitution of the United States introduced in the senate by Senator Cragin, of New Hamphire, on the day of adjournment: "Parabore for the United States, and every citizen therehad, or of any State or Territory therein the United States, and every citizen therehad, and the bound and primarily owe allegance to the United States, and every citizen therehad be bound and primarily owe allegance to the United States, anything in heir Constitution, laws or ordinances not withstanding, and every State heretofore in the Union, or which may hereafter be admitted as a member thereof, shall forever remain and constitute a part, and shall not, under any circumstance what shall not the control of the United States, anything in the Union, or which may hereafter be admitted as a member thereof, shall forever remain and constitute a part, and shall not, under any circumstance what shall not, under any circumstance what shall not the control of the property of the control of the property of herefrom."

The World's special says the Second Comparoller of the Treasury, yesterday, rendered a decision addressed to the Second, Third and Fourth Auditors, to the effect that shee, the passage of the act of 31st of March, Stenups collecting tax on aslaries, &c., instead of being paid directly to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, must be deposited in the United States Treasury with the Assistans. Treasurer or designated depository of Lablic moneys, in settling accounts of officers for taxes withheld by them. In making payment, the Auditors will accept certificates deposited, properly verified by the Cashier of Internal Revenue, as good vouchers, instead of the receipts of that officer, as heretofore required.

Cashier of Internal Revenue, as good vouchers, instead of the receipts of that officer, as heretofore required.
